

INVITATION

Promoting a healthy masculinity

Positive masculinity is integral to young men's mental health

The Victorian Parents Council and Brighton Grammar School are co-hosting an evening with Dr Simon Rice, Promoting a healthy masculinity

What roles do families, schools and communities play in equipping boys with the skills, attitudes and behaviors to develop and cultivate healthy masculinities?

Join Dr Simon Rice, lead of young men's mental health research at Orygen, as he presents on key societal issues faced by young men today.
