

A Mud Map of the Family-School Partnerships Framework

Published online in 2017, the refreshed framework is a useful resource but its current structure is hard to navigate in a meaningful way. This mud map will help.

Go to: https://\(www.education.gov.au/family-school-partnerships-framework

Click on.

1. Research and Resources to review the fact sheet on Parent Engagement Research.
2. Family-School Partnerships to read the vision.
3. Family-School Partnerships Framework to read the core principles, dimensions (don't click on the link at this point) and characteristics of effective partnerships.
4. Parent Engagement in Learning to read the three fact sheets on Parent Engagement, Learning at Home and Partnerships.
5. Family-School Partnerships Framework, scroll down to the key dimensions and now click on seven key dimensions. Then, click key dimensions in the right hand box to read the content of each dimension.

Strategies relating to each dimension can be accessed from this page.

6. Research and Resources and then on Case Studies — Our Stories.
7. Research and Resources to look at resources and links.

Under Parent Engagement you will find Parent Engagement in Children's Education.

Under Family-School and Community Partnerships you will find:

- Learning Together: Engaging Parents and Families in School Learning
- Opening the School Gate: Engaging Migrant and Refugee Families
- Partners in Education: A Dual Capacity-Building Framework for Family-School Partnerships
- Schools and Families in Partnership: A Desktop Guide (refugee backgrounds)
- Teachers and Families Working Together (disability).

Under Connecting Learning at Home and School, you will find:

- Growing up Our Way: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Child Rearing Practices Matrix
- How can Parents and Families Positively Engage in Boarder Learning and Schooling?

Under Case-Studies, you will find:

- Community Action Team: Thornbury High School.
- Parents as Partners in Indigenous Children's Learning.
- Sustainable School and Community Partnerships: A Research Study (inactive link)

There are also videos and a reference list, with many articles accessible free of charge.

8. Research and Resources and then on Key Dimensions of Family-School Partnerships to review the school assessment tool.
9. Family-School Partnerships Framework and scroll to the end of the page to read the fact sheet on Building Partnerships.