

Transitions

“Preparing for Launch - adventures in parenting post- school”

Facilitator: Jacqui Van de Velde

Parents have a unique role in assisting their child prepare for leaving school. The preparation starts much earlier than you might think.

Learn about:

- the art of conversation to become a coach in these critical conversations
- Managing expectations and the new phase in the parent/nearly adult relationship
- Parent power, school success and post school success
- Don't sweat the small stuff and focus on building competence.
- Techniques for life balance and creating a supportive young adult environment.

Jacqui Van de Velde

M.Ed, B.Ec, Dip. Ed, Dip. Training and Assessment Systems, Dip Business (Frontline Management), Cert IV TAE. Cert VI PFCE

Jacqui is an education consultant and has more than 25 years experience in education in both a professional and volunteer capacity. She has worked in and continues to work across a variety of educational and cultural contexts, in Australia, New Zealand, the EU, Singapore and North America. Jacqui is a passionate advocate for parent engagement in education, teaching standards, improved educational outcomes for K-12, wellbeing, professional learning networks and continuing education in the workplace.